Second Thought Brings a Changed Opinion

LONDON, March 21 .- The following semiofficial statement was obtained by the Assoclated press tonight in regard to the trouble between Great Britain and Nicaragua:

General Barrios, the Nicaraguan envoy left London when the British made demands expulsion from Bluefields of Mr. Hatch, the British consular agent there, and also for the appointment of a committee to adjudicate the damages sustained by the persons and prop-erty of British subjects expelled from the Mosquito reservation. General Barries, it is understood, has since submitted the matter to the government of the United States, with the object of enlisting sympathy and aid. The statement that Great Britain stipulated that no citizen of the United States should be a member of the commission mentioned is inaccurate. It is the opinion in diplomatic circles hero that the demands of Great Britain are exceptionally small and the aggra-

SPAIN HAS SENT NO ANSWER AS YET. Waiting for Replies from Cuba Regarding the firing on the Allianca.

MADRID, March 21 .- The under secretary of the foreign office, Senor Villaurruti, in an interview today, said that no reply had been given to the United States minister, Mr. Taylor, regarding the question of the firing upon the American steamer Allianca, pend ing the receipt of official news from Cuba, from the governor general of that island, Calleja, and from the commander of the Spanish war ship concerned, presumably the Conde de Venandito. Senor Villaurruti said he considered the language of the American press on the subject exaggerated and though the commander of the Spanish war ship in-capable of acting rashly. In the opinion of the unier secretary, the Allianca was un-doubtedly challenged in Cuban waters and should have paid heed to the signal of the war ship instead of running away in a sus-picious manner. Soon after the convicted rebels were sentenced to death the Honolulu newspapers reprinted the declaration of United States Senators White, Teller, Morgan, Hawley, Call and others who were opposed to capital punishment, and it is said that it was owing to these statements that Presithe deputies, who had a sharp conversation with him.

When the question came up in the superior and bent old veteran of the Grand Army of the Republic, will be a little more than 100 years old when he has served out his sentence, if he lives until then. This American prisoner, Seward, after having received his thirty-five years sentence to the penitentiary made a piteous and pathetic appeal to President Dole. On behalf of Major Seward and at his request Joaquin Miller undertook to carry to President Dole a message asking for mercy. Its substance was an entreaty by Major Seward to be taken out and shot rather than be kept in prison. When this rather than be kept in prison. When this message was delivered to President Dole he was startled not a little. He is a man of imposing presence and courteous and kind to a degree. After being told and retold that Seward insisted upon being shot, the president made this final statement: "I don't

The order appointing the receiver is to take effect only upon the entry in the district of Wyoming of an order directing the Union Pacific receivers now in charge to transfer the property to Egan, who is appointed receiver of the Short Line.

Three bills were brought by the American Loan and Trust company in the proceedings in the United States court here. One was SIOUX CITY, March 21.—One of the most serious fires in the history of Sioux City which was by mutual consent shelved in the hearing. Another was an intervening petitional destroyed the warshouse of the completely destroyed the warehouse of the tion in the Dillon suit, and Judges Gilbert was to the tion in the Dillon suit, and Judges Gilbert and Bellinger banded down their opinion with its contents, entailing a loss of more than $300,000. Egan's appointment will not stand unless the Wyoming court decides to appoint him after the case has been tried there. BOSTON, March 21.—Owing to the con-flicting reports of the decision rendered by Judge Gilbert at Portland, Ore., yesterlay, be done toward saving the implement ware-house the firemen turned their attention to saving the oil mill storage house. Mayor Fletcher telegraphed to Lemars and Mis-correct version of this decision this evening. Secretary Alexander Miller of the receivers but when it was found that the fire could does not in any manner change the condition be controlled messages were sent to hold created by the dismissal of the petition for a separate receiver, as the whole question will now go before Judge Sanborn on application in the Wyoming district. Counsel for the American Loan and Trust company will move for a hearing in the Wyoming court and order obtained in Portland will be favorable to the receivers.

Blanck, the desperado, was shot and killed by deputy sheriffs near Kent. The battle was one of the most desperate imaginable and was fought out with only ten feet separating the foes. This afternoon ten feet separating the foes. This afternoon word came to Kent that Blanck was penned in near Orillya. Bob Crow and John Shepich, who carried rifles, started up the Northern Pacific railroad track. When they were about a mile north they saw a man coming toward them down the track. They had no idea when they saw the man approaching that they were going to meet the desperado, and got within ten feet of him before the real danger developed itself. The stranger walked along without saying a word and finally Crow and Shepich called to him: "Throw up your hands." The man, without further delay, drew a five-shooter from his pocket and opened fire. Then the men with the rifles commenced pumping builets into their antagonist. It was a regular fusilade, and not until the desperado had emptied his revolver of all its shots, wounding Shepich and being bored through and through, was the battle over and the desperado lay on the track lifeless. Shepich and Crow had killed the Jesse James of the northwest, Thomas Blanck, allas Frank Hamilton.

CLAIM THEY KEPT ALL THE RICH ORE

Mining Company Cause s the Arrest of Tw Miners on the Charge of Theft. COLORADO SPRINGS, March 21,-Solo McCloskey and Tremont McCloskey, ar-rested at Cripple Creek on the charge of stealing ore from the Union Gold Minin company, were brought to this city and released, after furnishing $5,000 ball The complaint alleges that systematic steal 2000 insurance in the Liverpool, London & ling was carried on for about one year, and aggregates a sum of between $50,000 and Globe company. Insurance on the oil mill cannot be ascertained, as the National Linseed Oil company handles the insurance on all its plants. The Franklin and Pennsylvania companies each carried $3,000 and the Commercial Union $6,000 on seed in the elevator. The value of the contents of the elevator at the market price would make the loss $200,000.

TRUST ACCUSED OF HOLDING OUT Sensational Charges Concerning the Con veyance Fil d by the Whisky Trust. INDIANAPOLIS, March 21.-Louis Ew banks of Indianapolis said today that more sensational developments in the Whisky trust receivership case may be expected soon. Relative to the deed being filed in the various counties by order of the United deed now in the hands of the recorder of Dearborn county actually conveys less than Dearhorn county actually conveys less than one-fifth of the real estate belonging to the trust, and none of the personal estate. The descriptions are printed in small, close set type and cover eleven large pages, and the phrases which declare continued ownership of the personal estate and of so much of the real estate are introduced about the middle of the page, in an unobtrusive manner. Of course the action of the officers in using a printed description of the property in which these objectionable phrases are found, and thereby failing to obey the order of the court, may have been entirely innocent, and if so they will doubtless hasten to execute a new deed, actually conveying the property which it describes."

CARSON, Nev., March 21.-It is impossi-ble to get a direct statement from the mint ble to get a direct statement from the mint officials or employes, who say no information can be given out until the inspector finishes his investigation. It is reported assayers have been busy chiping off bits of several bars of builton on hand and testing them, but everything is all right so far. The exact amount of the shoriage is now said to be 3.100 ounces of gold builton at $20.50 per ounce and 1.000 ounces of silver at 63 cents per ounce, making a total of $64.180.

Fill ng the Hig Reser oir SANTA FE, N. M., March 21.-Water b gan pouring through the spiliway of the big reservoir near here today. Work has been progressing for two years, and now a lake is formed, half a mile long, a quarter of a mile wide, and seventy feet deep. There is enough water flowing through the canyon to fill this reservoir, which alone will hold water enough to irrigate 6,000 acres of valley lands. Movements of Seagoing Versels, March 21.

HUNDREDS ARE WIDOWED AND ORPHANED

Heartrending Scenes on the Surface-Force of the Explosion Destroyed All the Machinery-Long List of the Dead.

DENVER, Colo., March 21 .- A special to the News from Evanston, Wyo., says: It is now known that at least sixty men are bethis court the receiver will be ready to take charge of the read."

Last December the American Loan and today who were happy wives vesterday, and today who were happy wives yesterday, and Trust company brought suit in the United States circuit court for the foreclosure of their own mortgage on the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern and the appointment terrible accident were young and unmarried men. Seven men were killed outside at the mouth of the slope. Fifteen scarred and mutilated bodies have been recovered from the gruesome depths of the mine, and twentyeight others have thus far defied all efforts to reach them. With the bodies of the seven men killed at the surface, the total recovered down had to be rescued, having been overcome by the noxious gases and fumes of burnt human flesh and the stench of the singed and charred mules that were caught with the unfortunate men in this cave of death.

The violence and consequent fatality of the explosion surpasses belief. Out of sixty-one persons affected, fifty-eight were killed instantly, so doctors and old miners say. One, a boy, Jerry Crawford, died in his father's arms while being carried home, and within a few minutes another, Mr. Maltby, while having no external bruises, and being 100 feet. from the mouth of the mine, lingered about two hours, and Andrew Mason, the only person who survived longer, is now at the point of death, his skull having been fractured by flying pieces of timber.

LIST OF DEAD AND MISSING. EVANSTON, Wyo., March 21.-The total number now known to have perished in the mine disaster at Red Canon yesterday evening is sixty, of which fifty-one are married men and nine young men and boys. Up to this hour the bodies of the following out of a total of fifty-three who met their death fu the mine have been recovered and turned over to their relatives:

JAMES BRUCE, outside boss. JAMES W. CLARK.
EDWIN COX, the outside carpenter.
JERRY CRAWFORD, a boy. JAMES GERNKY, an Austrian, JAMES LIMB. O. B. MALTBY, foreman. ANDREW MASON. FRED MORGAN. - NEEX.

WILLIAM SELLERS, jr., rope runner. ANGEL DERMODI. WILLIAM GRIEVES, a boy. BAPTIST JULIAN. W. BERT CLARK. W. H. GRIEVES. THOMAS BOOTH. BENJAMIN COLES CHARLES CLARK. SAMUEL HUTCHINSON.

JOHN MORRIS. Cax, Bruce, Clark, Sellers, jr., and Gernky were killed in the power house, while Maltby, Crawford and Mason were injured and died soon afterwards, the last three being about the power house at the time of the explosion.

THOSE STILL IN THE MINE. The following persons are believed to be still in the mine and no hope is entertained that any will be recovered alive:

H. A. HYBARN. MATT JOHNSON. JOHN LA PAR ISAAC JOHNSON JOHN DEXTER. MATT SILTA. JOHN LEHTI JOHN LESTER.

SAMUEL CLAY, son of J. R. Clay. This leaves thirty-three unrecovered bodies in the mine. The timbering is largely blown ut and the walls and roof of the whole inout and the walls and roof of the whole in-terior are wrecked and shattered so that the volunteer searching party of eighteen now seeking the bodies of their comrades are every moment in danger of being buried. A coroner's jury has been empaneled, which views the remains as brought to the surface and they are then turned over to relatives. The agentzing screams of widows and children about the mouth of the mine begans descripabout the mouth of the mine beggars descrip-tion. The mules that were in the mine are so burnt that they will have to be removed on account of the odor before work can

The horror occurred at 5:45 yesterday evening at No. 5 Central Pacific mine, Red Canon, five miles north of Evauston. The explosion in the mine shocked the whole country around, wrecked the power plant, a fan house and several other buildings, ena fan house and several other buildings, entailing heavy loss, but the death roll far overshadows other considerations.

Around the mine was a great throng of people anxiously inquiring regarding friends known to be in the mine, and all hope of any of them being alive is gone. No one after aceing the ghastly spectacle presented by the two bodies brought out of the slope could have hopes of any in the mine being alive. These hodies were hurned and bisckened, with yerhopes of any in the mine being slive. These bodies were burned and blackened, with garments tern to shreds, making it almost im-
